In the space after these quotations taken from the lessons in this quarter, write the name of the person(s) who said it.

“Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.”

“Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign.”

“He that cometh after me is mightier than I.”

“Mine eyes have seen thy salvation.”

“Where is he that is born King of the Jews?”

“Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.”

“Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven.”

Quarter Review: Character CINQUAINS

A cinquain (sin-cane) is a type of poetry. Cinquains have this form:

- 1st line — one word naming the subject.
- 2nd line — two words describing the subject.
- 3rd line — three words telling about the subject, ending with “ing.”
- 4th line — two or three words telling how you feel about the subject.
- 5th line — another name for the subject.

Choose three different subjects studied this quarter and write a cinquain about each one.

Quarter Review: Morning STAR

Jesus is the “Star” of the lessons this quarter. Have you learned who He really is? In the message below, all the vowels are incorrect. Replace the incorrect vowels with the correct vowels (A=E, E=I, I=O, O=U, U=A) and you will discover who Jesus is and what He can mean to you.

Quarter Review: Name MOBILE

---

Jesus was known by many names. To find a few of them, look up these Scriptures and write the names you find, in the clouds.
