Memory Fun

Write four of your favorite key verses in the boxes below.

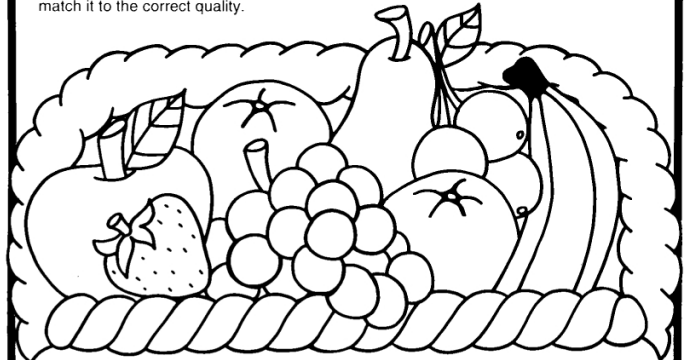

Below are three methods you may use to practice learning your key verses. Try them. See if you can think of more fun ways to memorize your key verses.

- Using the tune of a well-known song like, "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star," or "Row, Row, Row Your Boat," put your key verse to music. Sing it over and over until you have it memorized.
- Write each word of your key verse on a separate slip of paper and then scramble the slips. See how long it takes you to put the verse in order again.
- Use an egg timer and see how many times you can read your verse in three minutes. When the time is up say the verse by memory.
