

We're All Invited

You are invited to attend
a wedding

The following is a parable about the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. Somehow, as we tried to retell the story, the order of the happenings got mixed up. Please help us put this parable back in the right order as Jesus told it in Matthew 22:2-14. Use the spaces to the left of each sentence to number them in the right order.

- 7 Then the king sent his servants out into the highways to gather as many people as they could find, bad or good, and invite them as guests to the wedding.
- 1 "The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son."
- 8 When the guests arrived at the wedding, the king found one who was not wearing a wedding garment.
- 5 The invited guests of the king not only refused the invitation the second time but also slew the king's servants.
- 10 "For many are called, but few are chosen."
- 2 The king sent his servants to his invited guests to bid them to come to the wedding.
- 3 The bidden guests refused to come.
- 9 The king had the man (who was not wearing a wedding garment) taken away, bound, and cast into outer darkness, where there is weeping and gnashing of teeth.
- 6 The king was very angry and sent his armies to destroy those murderers and to burn up their city.
- 4 The king sent out his servants the second time to persuade the invited guests to come for the wedding was made ready.
