

Verse-A-Round

A vow is a special promise to God. It is a promise that must be kept. The Scripture in the puzzle below is what King David said about his vows to God. Write every third letter on the lines provided. The first two have been done for you. All the letters will be used so you will go around three times. (Need help? Ask your teacher.)

